

Delaware's Community Health Workers

A WORKFORCE SUMMARY

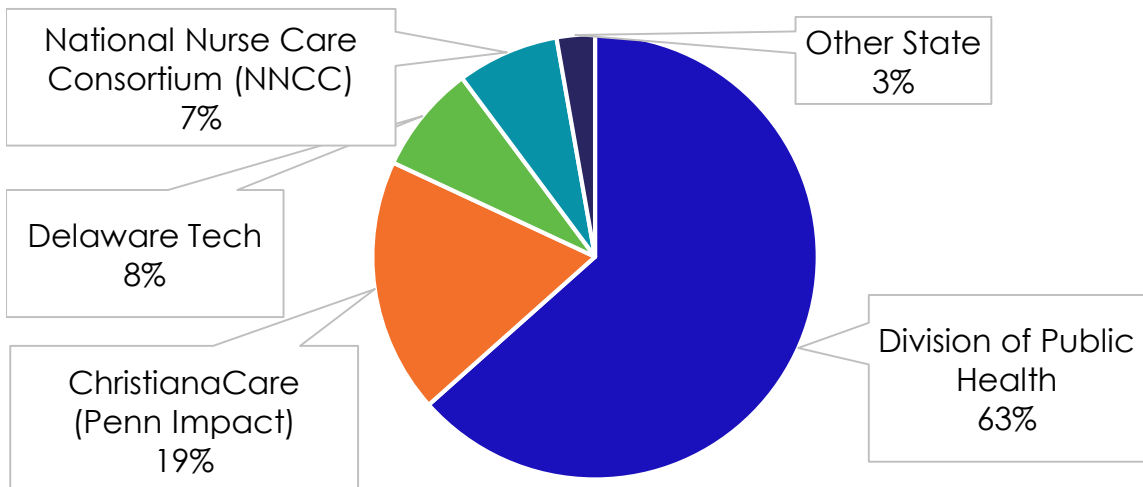

<https://chwadelaware.org/>

A Community Health Worker (CHW) is a frontline public health worker who is a trusted member of the community they serve. They serve as liaisons, guiding individuals and families through health, social, and community services systems to foster health and well-being. They are known by other names as well:

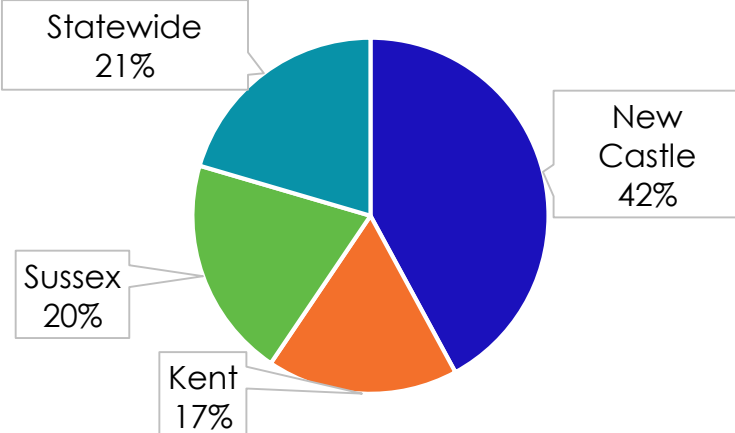

81% of CHWs in DE have received Core Competency training. There are currently 4 CHW Core Competency training providers in Delaware. Each one utilizes established national core competency standards.

Training Programs Completed by Trained CHWs:

CHWs work with a variety of agencies throughout Delaware. CHWs work with healthcare institutions, state agencies, and community-based organizations.

Counties Served

TOP 5 AGENCIES EMPLOYING CHWs:

1. ChristianaCare
2. Division of Public Health/DHSS
3. La Red Health Center
4. Latin American Community Center
5. Delaware Breast Cancer Coalition

*From data received between 11.29.22-6.2.23